MADE IN FRANCE.

RICH IN HERITAGE

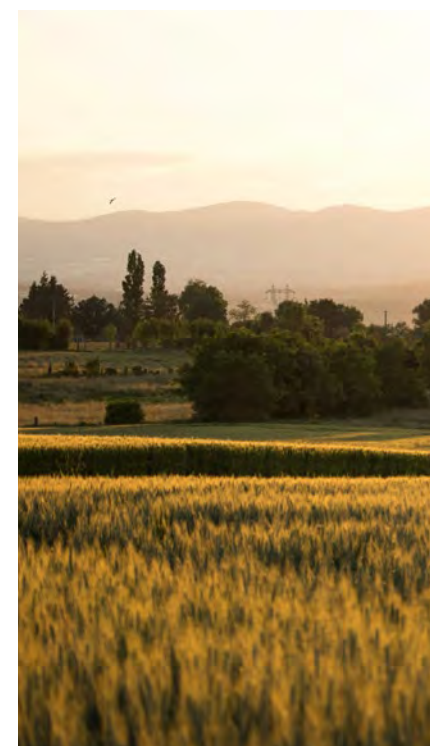

Parquet that's born from a country rich in centuries of culture, art, and design – where the smallest details are the height of excellence. Embrace this beautiful heritage and explore it alongside your clients: let it come to life through the projects you create.

PARQUETS DE FRANCE

Tradition meets innovation in an exceptional oak floor, made in France. In supporting French parquet, you're supporting a local industry and rich patrimony that values and respects wood and the forests in which it grows – as the European leader in hardwood, France processes all its wood near its origins, stimulating local economies and protecting the environment. BerryAlloc is proud to hold the "Parquets de France" label, a certification that maintains strict standards in quality, traceability, and guarantees local manufacturing.

MORE THAN JUST A WOODEN FLOOR

Whether your project takes place in an old country manor or a modern city apartment – a parquet floor will add value to any interior. Choosing a wooden floor means prioritising both aesthetics and sustainability, bringing character and the beauty of natural materials into the mix. Take a moment to imagine French parquet as your signature look: authentic, durable, and timeless at all times.

"THE MOST FASHIONABLE OF TIMELESS CLASSICS."

TRENDING INTERIORS, TIMELESS FLOORS.

Trends come and go, but floors last a lifetime.

Our experts have studied current and upcoming interior trends and popular styles, meticulously creating a parquet collection that suit the tastes of our current timeline but will evolve alongside future favourites.

As a result of this research, five main styles were defined. Explore the story behind each style and how our floors bring character to every look.

THE REVIVAL OF ELEGANCE.

— playfully chic and graceful.

In a world that has long embraced the chaotic charm of oversized silhouettes and raw imperfection, a quiet revolution is unfolding: the revival of elegance. This style marks the return to refinement, finding beauty in balance, craftsmanship, and enduring quality. Think stripped-down Art Deco where chrome and marble play against velvet, all wrapped in a nostalgic palette of Highland green, ochre, burgundy, and deep blue. It's modest, thoughtful, and built to last. Elegance isn't loud, it's quietly powerful.

THE ART OF LUSH LIVING.

— in green we flourish.

A refined ode to beauty and comfort. Inspired by the elegance of early 20th-century design, it channels a stripped-down Art Deco spirit where chrome and marble meet velvet in quiet sophistication. Imagine the intimate, curated luxury of a Parisian apartment, with glossy surfaces reflecting light like art in motion, while rich materials add warmth and depth.

ECLECTIC HAPPINESS.

— with a nostalgic touch.

Where nostalgia meets joy. It's a vibrant mix of colours, patterns, and playful charm, rooted in the belief that design should make us feel good. This style blends emotional colour theory with vintage charm. Think energising reds, calming blues, and cheerful contrasts that stir the senses. It's a curated chaos where heritage and science come together to create a home that feels both familiar and delightfully unexpected.

NATURAL WHITE.

— tonal harmony, mixed styles.

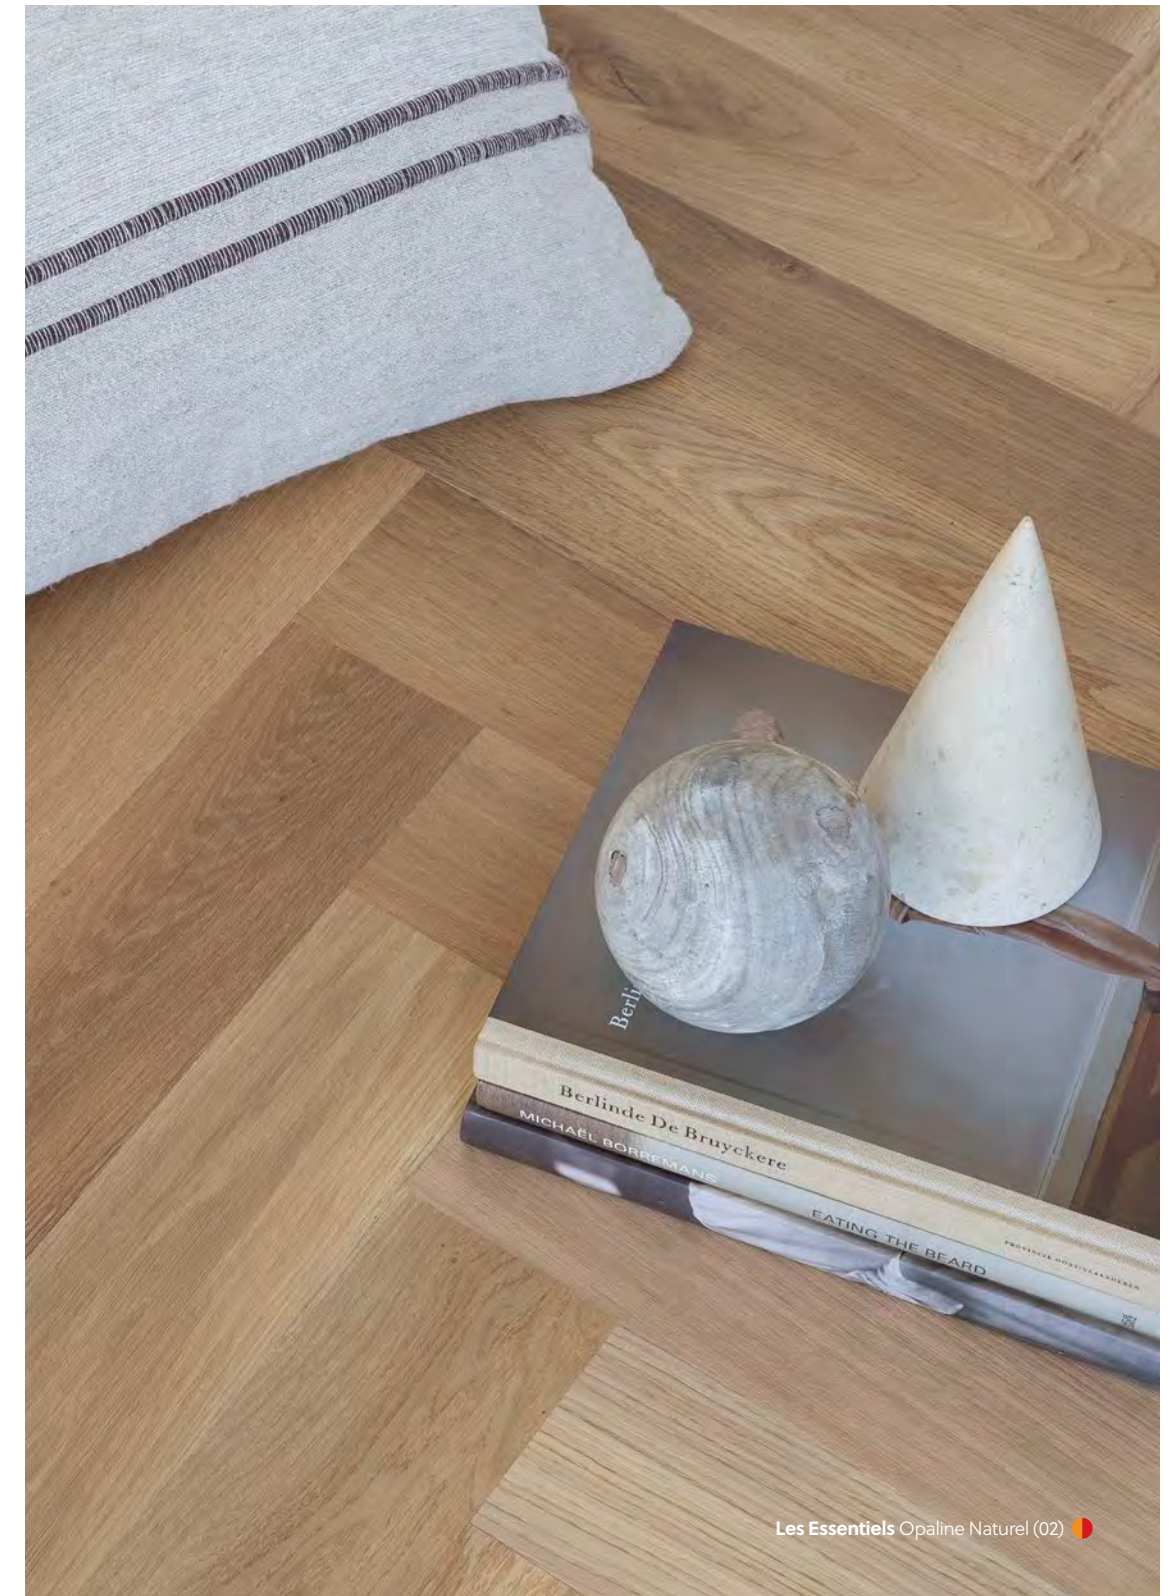

A gentle escape into simplicity. This timeless style blends natural materials like wood and rattan with soft, sun-bleached tones, creating a harmonious and relaxed aesthetic. Styles mix effortlessly, old with new, rustic with refined, always balanced. It's a countryside escape, a breath of sea air, a mountain cabin moment. Casual, effortless, and close to nature, it's a style that never fades, returning year after year with its calm, nonchalant spirit.

MODERN PRIMITIVES.

— muted serenity, earthy calm.

A quiet celebration of ancient wisdom and essential design. It draws from the geometry of indigenous art, the purity of handcrafted forms, and the serenity of natural materials. Sculptural home accessories and precious textures speak of quiet luxury, where every object feels intentional. The palette is warm yet light, with muted tones and occasional dark brown accents that ground the space. This is minimalism with soul: refined, rooted, and deeply human.

SUSTAINABILITY HAS NEVER BEEN MORE IN STYLE.

More than just a floor: make parquet the foundation of your interior story.

Whether you're designing a residential interior, an architectural building, or a high-end commercial space, these parquet floors will bring value to any project, highlighting the wood's noble character.

This natural material will elevate the perception of any interior, inviting future owners to share and pass on the joy of owning it.

On top of its aesthetic and economic worth, a BerryAlloc floor provides unmatched comfort and offers great renovation potential. Our parquet contributes to a warm and healthy home, regulating humidity and improving air quality.

With BerryAlloc, a parquet floor becomes a sustainable investment and remains a key feature of your interior design.

SUSTAINABLE, COMFORTABLE LIVING.

Looking for a floor with a low carbon footprint that'll span across generations? From sourcing raw materials to determining the product's end-of-life, our production process incorporates rigorous criteria for performance and sustainability.

1 SUSTAINABLY MANAGED BIO-SOURCED MATERIALS

Wood is a renewable resource that naturally stores CO₂ during its growth – this carbon storage can retain up to one tonne of CO₂ per cubic metre. Our parquet also uses an HDF board, mainly composed of wood fibres, to support the wood surface. The CO₂ captured for this wood, along with the carbon captured throughout the tree's lifecycle, more than offsets the fossil fuel emissions generated during manufacturing. Plus, all wood materials originate from sustainably managed PEFC-certified forests.

2 AN ENERGY-EFFICIENT INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION SITE

The Meaulne factory, located in central France, prioritises French wood to limit its carbon footprint in transporting raw materials. The entire manufacturing process (drying, processing, finishing, and dispatch) is centralised at the same site. Production by-products are recycled through a biomass boiler to heat the factory and dryers, contributing to the reduction of fossil fuel consumption.

3 AN OPTIMISED ON-SITE INSTALLATION

Thanks to our warehousing facilities located in central France, the average transport distance measures less than 300 km, reducing the carbon footprint for delivery and shipping. The BestLoc X-Treme click system allows a glue-free installation, minimising emissions. Products are fully processed in a controlled factory setting, requiring no additional oil or varnish after installation, which in turn reduces the environmental impact.

4 HEALTHY INDOOR AIR AND COMFORT

BerryAlloc parquet is varnished using the Ultimtec® technology, A+ certified and emitting a low amount of volatile organic compounds (VOCs). Free from harmful solvents, for a healthier indoor environment. Wood is warm and soft to the touch, providing great comfort in a living space.

5 MADE TO LAST

Our parquet floors are constructed with a real oak top layer of 2.5 to 3.3 mm (depending on the collection), allowing sanding up to three times, depending on the thickness and wear. They can last for over 80 years with proper maintenance. The lifespan considered by the FDES is 50 years: four applications for renovation and one sanding (including varnish) are included in the lifecycle analysis.

6 CONTROLLED END-OF-LIFE AND MATERIAL RECOVERY

Approximately 43% of products are recycled into wood panels. 49% are recovered for energy purposes. 8% are sent to landfills.

SOPHISTICATED, SUSTAINABLE, AND MADE WITH THE HIGHEST STANDARDS.

ULTIMTEC®: A NATURAL LOOK, REINVENTED!

EFFORTLESS BEAUTY THAT LASTS

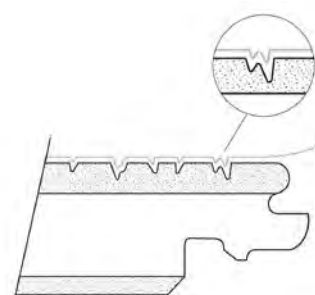

Imagine the delicate, natural beauty of an oiled real wooden floor with the ease of maintenance of a varnished wooden floor: easy to clean and durable. Ultimtec®, BerryAlloc's innovative varnish offers just that. Ultimtec® delivers an extra matt finish that looks completely natural, while being ultra wear-resistant and easy to clean. It's water-based, contains no solvents or chemical reagents, and is designed to keep your floor looking flawless for years.

ONE OF A KIND, JUST LIKE YOUR FLOOR

What makes Ultimtec® stand out from the rest? We apply the varnish within the structure of the floor, not just on the surface.

This means:

- no sharp edges where dirt can settle;
- a uniform surface with the authentic brushed character;
- better protection and easier cleaning.

Other floors lose their texture under a thick layer of varnish. With Ultimtec®, your floor keeps its natural structure and transparency and stays beautiful over its full lifetime.

"PARQUET FLOORS
THAT ARE SUITABLE FOR KITCHENS."

SUPERIOR PORE PROTECTION

Thanks to our unique technique, your floor is better sealed and even easier to maintain. No more worrying about spills, scratches, or everyday mess. Just enjoy your space, Ultimtec®'s got it covered. And the best part? You can even install it in kitchens!

LIVE CAREFREE

Shoes on? No problem. Kids playing? Go for it. Spilled something? No panic. With Ultimtec®, your wooden floor is ready for real life and still looks stunning.

WOOD THAT'S FULL OF CHARACTER.

A truly natural material, unique in its richness of expression with varying colours, knots, and grain patterns. Each plank is authentic, reflecting the history and stories of the tree from which it originated.

The oak is carefully selected to determine its level of character, with each wood choice ranging from refined to expressive, offering different aesthetics to suit various tastes. Our planks wear their knots proudly – these are not defects, but distinctive features. They indicate the location of where a branch used to be and contribute to the soul of a floor: few or many, large or small, they bring warmth, character, and a natural look to your floor.

Another part of the tree includes sapwood, a light-coloured area of young wood which allows the sap to circulate and nourish the tree. Over time, it evolves into heartwood (hard wood), which provides the wood's structure and stability.
